Instructions
Use 1/4" seam allowances throughout.

Step 1. Cut a total of eighty 1-1/2" x 12" strips from the eleven fabrics.

Step 2. Place the cotton triangle (cut using the template on page 6) right side up on a flat surface. Align the first strip on the left edge of the triangle, with right sides together. Stitch.

Step 3. Flip and press seam to side toward triangle.

Step 4. Align the second strip as shown. Stitch.

Step 5. Flip and press seam toward triangle.

Step 6. On a flat surface, arrange the remaining strips as desired.

Step 7. Continue adding strips, alternating left and right until all strips are sewn. Press each seam towards the previous strip sewn.

Step 8. Repress all seams. Straighten and square up the table runner. Trim the sides evenly so the runner is a perfect rectangle.

Step 9. Cut two 18" x 29" rectangles of backing. Place the rectangles right sides together and stitch along one 18" side. Press seam to one side. Cut one 18" x 58" rectangle of batting.

Step 10. Place backing right side down on a large flat surface. Add the batting, then center the top. Smooth out, square up and pin baste using safety pins.

Step 11. Straight line quilt, 1/2" apart or quilt as desired.

Step 12. Bind quilt.
